Postgraduate Medical Teaching Reaches Outlying Areas

The Department of Continuing Medical Education was established in the fall of 1963 with DR. SAMUEL KLING as its Director. Since that time the Department has initiated an exciting new concept in the post-graduate training of medical doctors. This concept which is now successfully being practised is to take medical faculty members outside Edmonton to community hospitals throughout the province and conduct courses there 3 times per year in order to help local doctors keep abreast of the flood of new medical knowledge and techniques. These courses are being held in such widely dispersed areas as Peace River, Grande Prairie, Westlock, Lamont, St. Paul, Vegreville, Drayton Valley, Hinton, Camrose, Stettler, Drumheller, Red Deer, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Claresholm, and Cardston. The program allows the community doctor to meet with members of the Medical Faculty and update his knowledge with a minimum of disruption to his daily practise. An interesting fringe benefit which has developed from this program is that the faculty teachers are being provided with the opportunity to learn what medical practice is like outside the city and teaching hospitals and, in some instances, they have found reason to revise their concept of what constitutes good undergraduate and graduate medical teaching. Several expressions of approval and gratitude have been received from the leity in these communities for the interest the University is taking in their continuing education. The program has been initiated by the University of Alberta through its Medical Faculty in cooperation with the Alberta Division of the Canadian Medical Association.

Faculty of Business Administration and Commerce

The Faculty of Commerce will be known as the Faculty of Business Administration and Commerce beginning July 1. This was a decision made by the University's Board of Governors at their meeting February 4. DEAN HU HARRIES explains that because the undergraduate program has been broadened during the past year to include more business administration, and since the Master's program in Business Administration is now offered at the University, the new name more accurately describes the courses of study offered. There is another factor. Most universities use the term "business administration" and, in attempting to attract staff to the University especially trained in this field, a name change seemed appropriate.

Change in Name

The Board of Governors at their meeting on February 4 approved the recommendation of the Faculty of Physical Education, endorsed by General Faculty Council, that the name of the program leading to the degree of B.A. in Recreation Leadership be changed to a program leading to a B.A. in Recreation Administration. DEAN M. L. VAN VLIET explains that the change in name more accurately describes the qualifications of the person graduating from this 4 year program. A person with this degree is trained to coordinate, staff, and budget recreation programs in a community. Recreation "leaders" then work under these graduates to carry out their legislation.

Plastic Surgery Division Established

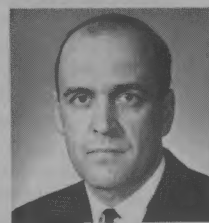

The establishment of a Division of Plastic Surgery within the Department of Surgery was approved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors at their meeting Jan. 26. Dr. J. D. M. Alton was named Head of the Division, effective Jan. 1, 1965.

Plastic surgery has developed to its present degree of specialization since the Second World War. At the University Hospital, this has been mainly due to the efforts of Dr. E. Hitchin. Thirty years ago surgeons felt that their purpose was to cure disease. Appearance was not considered a major medical problem. Following the War, however, a certain sector of surgeons became concerned with the rehabilitation problems faced by men who had been badly scarred and burned in battle. They realized that one's emotional outlook on life could be greatly improved through the use of skin grafting to cover mutilated areas. Today there are five plastic surgeons on the University's medical staff, three of whom are exclusively at the University Hospital.

Dr. Alton explained in a recent interview that the new division will have four functions - to care for patients, to provide undergraduate teaching, to train post graduates and to carry out research. He noted that a doctor wishing to specialize in plastic surgery is required to take a minimum of 5 years training in hospitals before he may write examinations.

Dr. Alton is a graduate of the University of Alberta, having received his B.Sc., M.Sc., and

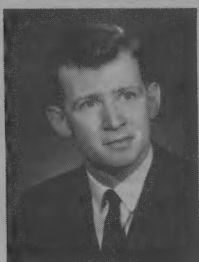

M.D. degrees here. He is a Fellow in Plastic Surgery of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and has a practice in the Physicians and Surgeons Building directly across from the University Hospital on 112 Street.

Ford Foundation Fellowship

The Ford Foundation has awarded a Fellowship to PROFESSOR W. H. ANGUS for graduate study in Law at

W. H. ANGUS

Columbia University, New York City. Professor Angus, whose field is administrative law, will carry on a comparative study of immigration policy and procedure. He will be working towards the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science.

Veterinarians' Short Course

A two-day short course in Veterinary Medicine was held at the University February 8 and 9. The course was sponsored by the Alberta Veterinary Medicine Association with the cooperation of the Faculty of Medicine under the direction of DR. D. C. SECORD, Assistant Professor and Director of the Vivarium. Eighteen veterinarians from various parts of the Province took part in the course which was concerned with the clinical aspect of blood and its diseases in cats and dogs. The featured speaker was Dr. B. J. McSherry of the Department of Pathology, Ontario Veterinary College, Guelph. The course was the third in a series concerned with the continuing medical education of veterinarians.

U of A COTC Golden Jubilee

The University of Alberta Contingent, COTC, is celebrating its 50th Anniversary this year. The main event will be a re-union dinner to be held in the Faculty Club on Wednesday, February 17 at 7:00 p.m. Invitations have been sent to all known former members of the unit in Edmonton. Any such member on the Faculty or staff who has not received an invitation should get in touch with R. C. W. HOOPER, Dean of Men, (483) or DR. J. H. WHYTE, Professor of Botany (484).

Minos - a myth

DR. R. J. BUCK, Head of the Department of Classics, has recently completed an interesting assignment as contributor to the 1965 revision of the Encyclopaedia Britannica. He wrote the entry on Minos, the legendary ruler of Crete, son of Zeus and Europa, who, according to myth writers, was considered a powerful and just ruler, very closely associated with religion and ritual. Following his death in Sicily he became one of the three judges in Hades. Another scholarly article which Dr. Buck has now completed is the result of ten years of research. It is entitled "Middle Helladic Matt-painted Pottery" and appeared in the July-September, 1964 issue of Hesperia, Journal of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens.

Commonwealth Fellowship Awards

The Canadian Commonwealth and Fellowship Committee of CUF has announced that in addition to the Commonwealth Scholarships already offered, awards to be known as Commonwealth Fellowships are now to be made. There will be 2 kinds - Commonwealth Research Fellowships and Commonwealth Visiting Fellowships.

COMMONWEALTH RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS: Up to 3 Fellowships in this category will be available each academic year for one year. These Fellowships are intended to bring to Canada from Universities and research centres of other Commonwealth countries, scholars of established reputation whose presence in Canadian universities is expected to be of benefit to themselves and their countries as well as to their Canadian hosts. The Fellow will normally be attached to one University although his program may include short visits to other institutions. A Fellow, his wife, and dependent children will be provided with return air fare, a monthly maintenance allowance equivalent to the salary of a Canadian full professor, and transportation costs for authorized travel in Canada. Each University may make one recommendation for the coming academic year although the responsibility for issuing the invitations rests with the Canadian Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Committee. Recommendations for this University's nominee should be received by the President's Office by Monday, February 22.

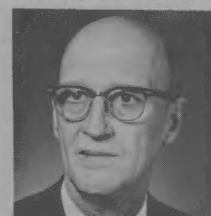

COMMONWEALTH VISITING FELLOWSHIPS: Up to 5 Fellowships in this category are available annually, normally for a period from 2 to 4 months. These Commonwealth Fellows will be persons prominent in various fields of education including universities, colleges, primary and secondary schools, and technical institutions. A Visiting Fellow will have the opportunity to discuss educational matters with his Canadian colleagues, and to advise and be advised on techniques and problems associated with his particular educational interest. He will be provided with return air fare, authorized transportation costs within Canada, and a per diem expense allowance. Each University may not make more than 1 nomination for any given year and may not be host to Visiting Fellows 2 consecutive years. Recommendations for Visiting Fellowship nominees within the period of April 1, 1965 to March 31, 1966 must be received by the Office of the President no later than February 22.

NATO Visiting Professorship

The President has received correspondence from Canadian Universities Foundation announcing a NATO Visiting Professorship Program for the year 1965-66. A Canadian Professor will be invited to go to France and, at the same time, Canada is asked to invite 2 professors to come to this country - one from Italy, and one from Turkey. Under the program professors from NATO countries will be asked to give courses of lectures or to undertake seminars or tutorial work in fields of study of direct interest to NATO. The object of these courses would be to reveal the common traditions and historical experience of the countries of the North Atlantic area, considered as a community, and to give insight into its present needs and future development. The lectures should preferably deal with historical, political, constitutional, legal, social or economic problems and possibly those of a cultural, linguistic or scientific nature. The President is asked (1) to suggest the name of a professor from this University who would be interested in visiting France and, (2) to indicate whether or not we would be able to accept a visiting professor from either Italy or Turkey. Faculty members are asked to make recommendations to the President's Office. The deadline for submissions to C. U. F. is March 31. The final selection of the professor will be made by NATO authorities and all expenses of the visiting professors will be paid by NATO.

Couchiching Conference for Psychologists

Professor A. J. B. Hough, Director of Student Counselling Services, has been invited to be a participating member of a conference on the training of professional psychologists in May, to be held at the Couchiching Conference Centre, 60 miles north of Toronto near Orillia. The application of psychological knowledge and theories has led to the development of a number of psychological professions, but, to the present, there are differing concepts of the roles of persons in any of these professions and, therefore, variations in the extent of the training that is provided.

A. J. B. HOUGH

The Canadian Psychological Association has invited some fifty psychologists to meet together in order to consider these questions and to bring forward a report that may help clarify the present situation.

First Commerce Workshop

A special 4-week workshop, the first of its kind in Canada, on "Quantitative Models and Computers in Business" is being held this summer at the University of Toronto. The workshop is designed for people teaching business at universities with a strong background in Math. PROFESSOR H. W. FORD of our Faculty of Commerce has been selected as one of the 25 delegates. The workshop is sponsored by the University of Toronto in conjunction with the Ford Foundation.

VARSAITY VARIETIES '65

Varsity Varieties returns to the Northern Jubilee Auditorium on February 18, 19, and 20. Its reputation as an irreverent spoof on all things sacred, seductive and social credit remains unblemished. William Somers has composed the music and lyrics for fifteen new songs, and in the accepted attitude of disrespect asks you to "Con The Dean", to admire individuals like "Joe P. Capital C. Collegiate", and if you're really serious about learning "How To Succeed", then "Do It For Arts Sake". Tickets at $1.00, $1.50, and $2.00 are on sale in the S.U.B. and Allied Arts Box Office.

Calendar of Events

The exhibition will be on view from Feb. 16 - March 6 inclusive in the Studio Theatre Lobby.

Coming Events

The final major production by STUDIO THEATRE for the season will be by Kopit,

"DAD, POOR DAD, MAMA'S HUNG YOU IN THE CLOSET AND I'M FEELING SO SAD"

March 23 through 27

Réal Caouette will be the speaker for the LAW SCHOOL FORUM on February 26th. The title of his topic has not been chosen yet but he is expected to speak on some aspect of the Social Credit Party. Mr. Caouette, 47, a native of Quebec, is President of Joyal Motor Sales, Val d'Or. He is better known, however, as founder in 1958 of "Le Ralliement des Creditistes du Québec", co-leader of the Social Credit Party of Canada, and leader of a group of 13 members from the Ralliement in the House of Commons. His talk begins at 8 p.m. in Room 126 of the Math-Physics Building.
